

PRESS STATEMENT

Completion of Field Data Collection for Household Expenditure Survey 2022/23

The Singapore Department of Statistics (DOS) has completed the field data collection phase of the Household Expenditure Survey (HES) 2022/23.

There will be no further visits to households by survey officers from DOS with effect from 30 December 2023. Households that were surveyed for the HES 2022/23 may be contacted via telephone for clarifications on the information provided earlier.

With the completion of the HES 2022/23 field data collection phase, the existing toll-free HES Hotline (1800-888-2223) and email address (singstat_hes@singstat.gov.sg) will be discontinued with effect from 15 January 2024. Households that wish to contact DOS on matters pertaining to the HES 2022/23 may call our Department's Hotline 1800-323-8118 or (65) 6332 7738 (for overseas callers) from 8:30 am to 5.30 pm, Mondays to Fridays (excluding public holidays), or email info@singstat.gov.sg.

DOS wishes to express our appreciation to all surveyed households for the support and cooperation in providing the information required for the HES 2022/23.
